

Images of the Human

Turing Centre's Lecture Series
Autumn Semester 2021

This year's seminar will explore the multiple transformations of the conception of the "human" in the face of the current scientific, social and technological challenges, focusing on those related to recent digital technologies and practices. The lectures will be delivered by researchers from ETH and abroad, with different disciplinary backgrounds within the humanities and the social sciences.

September 27

Prof. Dr. Maria Kronfeldner

(CEU, Vienna)

Images from the Social Sciences

November 8

Prof. Dr. Elliott Ash

(ETH Zurich)

Images from from Law and Judging

October 11

Prof. Dr. Ulrik Brandes

(ETH Zurich)

Images from Sociology

November 22

Prof. Dr. Sara Irina Fabrikant

(University of Zurich)

Images from Geography

October 25

Prof. Dr. Leo Corry

(Tel Aviv University, Academic Guest of the Zentrum „Geschichte des Wissens“ of ETH Zurich/UZH)

Images from the History of Science

December 6

Dr. Patrice Maniglier

(University Paris Nanterre)

Images from Anthropology

December 20

Prof. Dr. Michael Hampe

(ETH Zurich)

Images from Philosophy

Lectures will take place on Mondays from 18:15 to 20:00 at ETH Zurich.

The lecture series is open to the public under conditions of the ETH Covid-19 protective measures. Venue and further information will be available on the Turing Centre's website: www.turing.ethz.ch, or on Twitter @TuringCentre